

SESSION THREE

“Kids today are overly _____, media _____, relationally _____, over materialized, _____ defined, and often _____ about who they are suppose to be. It has become the norm to pile adult _____ on our kids. This is both a direct _____ influence as well as an indirect one from _____ and other _____ consumed adults.”

Evolution of Adolescence: (Stage between childhood and adulthood)

Before 1900: _____

Just After 1900: _____

By The 1940's: _____

Beginning in the 1960's: _____

Today: _____

So, what does that really mean?

Many individuals are currently leaving home to live as _____ while still respectively being _____, in the developmental sense of the word.

Three types of Christian students struggling to make the transition after high school:

1. The _____ Characteristics:

How To Help:

2. The _____ Characteristics:

How To Help:

3. The _____ Characteristics:

How To Help:

Which of these three types of people were you in high school:

---

How do you see this relate to the students in your ministry today?

---

---

---